

e-Seminar Presenters

Toby Stephan, Toby Stephan, M.A., CCC-SLP, Hanen Instructor and Hanen US Representative, is a speech-language pathologist who has worked with children with developmental disabilities for over 15 years. In addition to being an experienced clinician and provider of Hanen Programs, offering both It Takes Two to Talk® and Learning Language and Loving It™ Programs since 1998, Toby provides Hanen training to speech-language pathologists and speech-language pathology students across the United States.

Cindy Smith, B.A., B.App.Sc.(Sp.Path.) is a speech pathologist, and a Hanen Instructor for the It Takes Two to Talk Certification workshop. Cindy is the Australasian representative for The Hanen Centre. Her background is in early language intervention, including providing Hanen programs to parents in Australia and the United Kingdom.

Cindy Conklin, M.Cl. Sc., is a speech-language pathologist and the Program Manager for It Takes Two to Talk®, at The Hanen Centre. In addition to being an experienced clinician, Cindy is an Instructor for the ITTT Certification workshop and provides training to speech-language pathologists worldwide on how to effectively apply the Hanen approach to support the language and social development of young children with language delays.